2024 Spring Academic Writing Workshop Join us now!

Join us for the Spring 2024 Academic Writing Workshop @NTNU Library x CAL. These events are designed to enhance academic writing skills and empower participants to optimize research through effective database instruction. Mark your calendars for this enriching opportunity to sharpen your academic skills. Don't miss the opportunity to improve your academic writing and research skills!

Academic Literacy *All classes are full.

The first event of Academic Literacy entitled "Synthesizing Various Sources". The Library invited Professor Sonya to lead the workshop. Over thirty faculty and students came and joined us. In the workshop, participants tried to synthesize scholarly arguments during the discussion session with team members. Feedback included "helpful for graduate students who struggling with academic writing" and "learned a lot from the lecture".
